This is a delightful opportunity to create your home, or perhaps an investment in your future, either way, a near city location like this has a great track record in capital growth.

Ideally positioned to enjoy easy access to all you will need on a daily basis, shops, schools, family parks and city transport, this is such a vibrant and lively part of Brisbane. Close to Royal Brisbane Hospital and QUT campus.

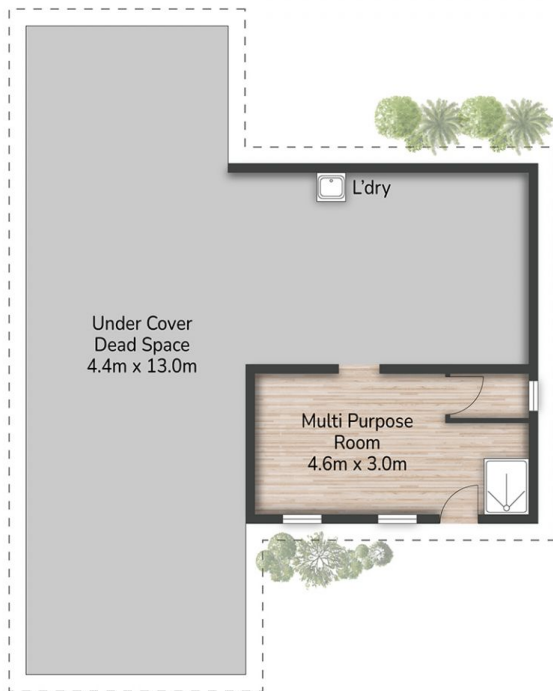

The house is a fine example of 1930's Brisbane, elevated and breezy with a lovely view to the north, with all those traditional features that make these homes such a joy to live in. High ceilings, some finished in pressed metal, polished timber floors and VJ walls.
